Athens

Dear Mr. Lintzerakos,

The Department of State Policy in Civil Aviation of the Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation presents its compliments to the Ministry of Infrastructure and Transport of the Hellenic Republic and would like to reassure its intention to strengthen contacts and cooperation between Aeronautical Authorities of the two respective countries.

In accordance with the point 3.1 of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Aeronautical authorities of Russia and Greece dated February 17, 2017, the Russian side may choose one point in the territory of Greece as a point of destination for the Russian designated airlines. In this regards, the Aeronautical authorities of Russia specifies Thira as point of destination.

Yours sincerely,

Svetlana A. Petrova

Ref. No. 9-565/15-05-2017

Dear Ms Petrova,

The Hellenic Civil Aviation Authority presents its compliments to the Department of State Policy in Civil Aviation of the Russian Federation and you personally and would like to make reference to your letter Ref. No. 565 dated 15-05-2017.

We would like to acknowledge our acceptance of Santorini (Thira) as a new point of destination in Greece for Russian designated air carriers, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3.1 of the Memorandum of Understanding signed between our respective Authorities on February 17th 2017.

Being confident that the recently agreed enhanced arrangements and inauguration of new air transport links will pave the way for further strengthening of longstanding aviation ties between our two countries.

I avail myself of this opportunity, Dear Ms Petrova, to renew the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours Sincerely,

Konstantinos Lintzerakos
HCAA Governor
